

Two piles of stones

With a swing ♩ = 116 ♩ = 116

Words and Music by Jan Faulkner

MELODY

F G C G

f Two piles of stones,

4 C F C G C

thou - sands of years a - go on op - po - site sides of the world,

7 C G C F C G C

Two piles of stones, thou - sands of years a - go on op - po - site sides of the world.

11 F C G

1. One be - came the py - ra - mids the o - ther, Stone -
 2. E - gypt built a py - ra - mid for Pha - raoh and
 3. Does - n't mat - ter where you are the stones are still
 4. And for cen - tu - ries to come, the stones will re -

14 C F C

- henge, both are full of my - ste - ry and kings. Stone - henge was for ev - 'ry one to there, tell - ing tales of his - to - ry and
 - main, why and how its se - crets they still

17 G G C G

won - - - der.
 mar - - - vel.
 ma - - - gic.
 haunt us.

Two piles of stones,

20 C F C G C

thou - sands of years a - go on op - po - site sides of the world,

23 C G C F G C

Two piles of stones, thou - sands of years a - go on they're still there! Yeah!