

Week 3 Lesson Three

Alphabet Dragon Poem.

To be able to use powerful verbs and expanded noun phrases to improve descriptions.

Can you use some of the powerful descriptive language that you have read in legends so far, to create a vivid picture for the reader?

Success Criteria

- Think of a word beginning with the alphabet letter.
- Use that word to begin a descriptive sentence about a part of the dragon's body.
- Include expanded noun phrases and powerful verbs in your sentences.

Continue the poem by writing a descriptive line for different parts of the dragon, e.g.
eyes, tail, teeth, jaws, talons (nails), wings.

A dragon Alphabet.

Angrily swooping on innocent towns.

Breathing fire on Princess's gowns.

Catching cattle in jagged claws.

Deafening villagers with mighty roars.

E _____

F _____

Extension -

To complete the illustration of the dragon to decorate your poem.